Statements inserted by the copyist are put in parentheses. This cemetery located at Locust Valley, Long Island, Oyster Bay Township, is on the farm purchased by William Frost, about 1870, the title of which never passed from the direct descendants until about 1900 when it was purchased by Mr. Paul D. Gravath.

It is known that the pioneer and his wife are buried here but no stones show the exact location of their graves, but in the enclosure of evergreens are many unmarked mounds, probably of those of the third generation. The nearest faithful to date October 1, 1910, is Smith.
